TWIIINS is a violin duo from South Korea and Germany, known for their energetic and genre-blending performances. They combine classical music with pop, funk, film scores, jazz, and rock, creating a unique and dynamic sound.

With their lively stage presence and passion for live music, TWIIINS captivates audiences, turning each performance into an engaging experience.

More than just a duo, they aim to spread joy through their music, offering a fresh take on violin performances that connect with people across different genres and styles.

In addition, they have participated as composers and musicians in the production The Resistible Rise of Arturo Ui at the Landestheater Salzburg.

Dowon Kim

Dowon Kim was born in 2003 in South Korea and is a violinist and composer. He is a member of the violin duo TWIIIINS. He studies jazz violin and improvised music at the Anton Bruckner Private University in Linz. Alongside his studies, Dowon Kim is active as a musician, performing at the Landestheater Salzburg in productions such as Arturo Ui and The Story of the Little Mole Who Knew It Was None of His Business, and appears in solo concerts, ensemble collaborations, and orchestra projects in South Korea and across Europe. His repertoire spans classical, jazz, rock, and experimental music.

Linus Shastri

Linus Shastri, born in 2001, is an osteopathy student in Munich and a passionate musician. As part of the violin duo TWIIIINS, he performs concerts and is dedicated to contemporary music as well as exploring new ways of playing the violin. In addition to his work with the duo, he has participated in numerous musical projects, with composition also playing an important role in his creative work.
